

Quiz: 8th Grade Science

Quiz: 8th Grade Science

Week of April 20, 2015

- 1) Global winds blow to the east or west because of...
 - A. The Coriolis Effect
 - B. Bodies of water, hills, and buildings
 - C. Because of Global winds
 - D. Because of the Earth's rotation
- 2) Why do winds shift during the Coriolis Effect?
 - A. The Coriolis Effect
 - B. Bodies of water, hills, and buildings
 - C. Because of Global winds
 - D. Because of the Earth's rotation
- 3) Local winds sometimes blow in different directions because of...
 - A. The Coriolis Effect
 - B. Bodies of water, hills, and buildings
 - C. Because of Global winds
 - D. Because of the Earth's rotation

True or False

- 4) Trade Winds got their name because winds kept trading directions. True or False.
- 5) Doldrums got their name because not much wind is in that region. True or False.